Dear Mr. Casey,

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation for the excellent briefing on antiarmor countermeasures by [redacted] of OSWR on 20 September. His detailed knowledge and clear, lucid presentation reflect very favorably on [redacted] initiative, professional knowledge and analytical skills. The information presented will be of great help as we make key decisions concerning our future force structure. We would be grateful if [redacted] could repeat this briefing in the near future for another group of our general officers.

The thorough professional efforts and standards of the Central Intelligence Agency are deeply appreciated by all Marines who have been privileged to work with your organization. Please convey my appreciation to [redacted] and accept our thanks for making his presentation possible.

Warm personal regards.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "J. K. Davis".

J. K. DAVIS
General, U.S. Marine Corps
Assistant Commandant of the Marine Corps
